for Oakland

MATTERS of much moment in railroad circles will be under discussion between the officials of the Southern Pacific and the officials of the Western Pacific, each group acting for the respective roads mentioned, at the end of next week. Last evening President William Sproule of the Southern Pacific company went south in his special car to meet Julius Kruttschnitt at El Centro, and from there to proceed to Los Angeles. President Bush of the Western Pacific left Denver for San Francisco and Oakland last evening and Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the Union Pacific directorate, will arrive in San Francisco next Wednesday morning.

Whatever may be the outcome of the conference that are to be held in California between the men representing vast railroad systems is to some extent conjecture, but the several meetings will be of utmost importance to California and Oregon, and of especial importance to San Francisco and Oakland. It can be said on good authority that the coming of Lovett and Kruttschnitt is in connection with the election of a new president of the Union Pacific.

HUERTA OBTAINS
$2,600,000 LOAN

Rumored Catholic Party
Aided Negotiation
in Paris

PARIS, Oct. 16.—The foreign office here today received a telegram from the French legation at Mexico City suggesting that a warship be sent to Mexico.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—Provisional President Huerta of Mexico has obtained a loan of $2,600,000 in Paris, chiefly according to circumstantial reports, through the influence of the chiefs of the Catholic party.

The Most Rev. Jose Mora, archbishop of the state of Mexico, it is said, came to Europe recently partly on this account. The loan was arranged on short term bills to be repaid out of the proceeds of the unissued portion of the loan arranged last spring.

WASHINGTON STILL WAITING. Oct. 16.—The Mexican situation remained unchanged today and administration officials agreed generally that the Huerta government would make no answer to President Wilson's latest note. News of latest constitutional victories was received without comment. The delivery of the situation, however, was unaltered and the attitude of the Washington government was still a waiting one, with the close observer.

ENGLAND ALSO WAITING. LONDON, Oct. 16.—The British government has adopted a waiting attitude in regard to the Mexican situation. It considers the matter thus far as an entirely internal affair of Mexico and does not contemplate any action. The fact that Germany is reported to have sent a war ship to a Mexican port has not influenced British policy.

PLANS OF S. P.
BIG TERMINAL

The Southern Pacific has decided that Oakland shall be made the most important bay districts terminal. That the Third and Townsend street depot in San Francisco shall not be constructed under plans recently adopted for its rehabilitation. That an all-electric line shall some time in the near future operate between Oakland and Los Angeles. That the Beale and Market street (San Francisco) properties of the company shall be held in abeyance pending determination as to more preferable terminals on the other side of the bay. That as soon as the merger suit is definitely settled there will be an expenditure of millions, and for central California, Oakland will be given preference. That a new Arcade depot for Los Angeles be constructed immediately at a cost not less than $600,000.

THREAT IS SENT TO TURNER

Mayor Mott Also Said to Have Been "Spotted"
by Enemies

Threats against the life of Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Turner that if he causes certain saloon businesses to lose their licenses his home may be dynamited have been received by those interested in the matter through anonymous means, according to a statement made by Commissioner Turner today. It is also alleged that the threats extended to Mayor Mott, but that it was understood that other commissioners would not be visited with the vengeance of the men sending the messages unless they became active in the council cutting down the number of saloon licenses. That the threats have come from some irresponsible sympathizer with certain saloons which would be affected by the zone matter is the belief of those who have been told of the matter. Turner was loathe to admit he had received the threats today when questioned on the matter, stating that he did not take the matter seriously and that he feared the publication of a matter of this kind, which had come anonymously, would complicate the liquor question controversy unnecessarily. As a consequence Turner has not asked for any additional protection from the police, but it is probable that Chief Petersen will see to it that Turner's home is guarded.

THREATS IN MAIL

Threats against the life of Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. C. Turner, carried in postal cards through the mails, are being investigated by the police of the city and by the United States federal authorities. The threats come, apparently, from the fact that Turner was shot by order of Turner and Chief Petersen because it was either vicious or was running at large without a muzzle. The first postal card was received this morning and bore a Berkeley postoffice stamp marked "5 p. m. Oct. 15." It read in part as follows: "Look out for big damage suits and a stray bullet." The card was unsigned and was typewritten. It is probable that handwriting expert Professor Carl Eischenschimmel card, as in the address on the front of the card, between the first and last names. Turner a small "m" was inserted in his name. The card will be placed in the hands of the United States mail inspectors, and a thorough investigation will be made. The message is construed as a threat against Turner's life. It opens with several derogatory remarks and objectionable epithets.

Board Begins Voting on Charges Against Former Governor

ALBANY, Oct. 16.—A secret vote taken this morning finds Sulzer guilty by a vote of 43 to 14.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16.—The high court of impeachment which is trying William Sulzer adjourned shortly after 1 o'clock today, to meet again at 3 o'clock this afternoon, at which time it was announced a start would be made on the final vote to determine the guilt or innocence of the governor.

It was reported that the court voted informally in its secret session this morning to remove the governor from office by a ballot of 43 to 14. A vote to disqualify him from ever holding another office under the State was lost, it was said. There was not a single vote favorable to his disqualification, it was reported.

VOTE IS SEPARATE

Every article of impeachment was voted on separately, according to the news that leaked from the court room and not all of them were sustained. Those on which the Governor was reported to have been held guilty were articles 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the impeachment charges. The three first "money articles" having to do with the alleged falsification of the governor's campaign statement and misuse of campaign contributions. Article four relates to the suppression of evidence by the governor before the Fawcett committee, including the testimony of Duncan W. Peck, superintendent of public works.

HOW VOTE WENT

It was reported that the following members of the court voted in favor of finding not guilty and against removing him: President Judge Edgar M. Cullen and Senators James P. Duhamel, Independent league; James A. Agerson, Republican.

HOLD UP SIX AND
FOLLOW COIN SCENT

Two Armed Bandits Rob
Saloon Owner in Foothills

Two thugs armed with revolvers held up Charles S. Eiferle and six men who were standing before his hill boulevard, last night, and looted the place. Modeling their actions upon the heroic pattern of Robin Hood merry men in Sherwood forest, the robbers last night disdained taking money from the half-dozen men who were standing before the bar, but herded them into a small room and locked the door on them. "We don't want your money," said one of the bandits. "We'll take it from the fellow who makes it easier." They proceeded to loot the till and to take Eiferle's money from his pocket, operating in the same manner as the Sherwood forest outlaws who refused to take from the poor, but robbed the nobles and the stout flairs with great satisfaction.

The bandits are believed to be the same men who early yesterday morning took Patrolman Ginter's bicycle and whistled from him. They acted in the same liberal manner with Ginter, placing all his belongings, with the exception of the revolver, where he could find them a few blocks from the hill. They have taken his bicycle and revolver merely to make him helpless while they escaped. It is thought that the trio of men who were stopped by Patrolman Ginter concealed themselves in East Oakland on day yesterday, and went out last night to rob the saloon to get money to carry them on their way from Oakland.

Only two men were seen at the saloon holdup last night, but the police believe that the third member of the trio waited outside the saloon as a lookout for his two accomplices. The men who held up Eiferle last night were seen by a patrolman and conferred at length with them.

Berkeley Women's Big
Gymnasium to Admit
Men to Drill

BERKELEY, Oct. 16.—Not one exception is to be made from the program planned for tomorrow evening by the Berkeley Women's Gymnasium, to which the Berkeley Women's Council has taken exception, because the women and girls of the class propose to wear bloomer suits and admit men to watch their drills. The "oriental work," to which special objection was made, will be included with the other features. Miss Violet Richardson, instructor of the class, indeed declares it is to be one of the most innocent numbers on the program. One of the most enthusiastic rehearsals the class has yet had in preparation for tomorrow evening's entertainment was held yesterday afternoon. Determined to fill the High school auditorium despite the qualms of the council, the members of the class went through their drills and dances with renewed vim. "We don't need the Women's Council to help us fill the auditorium," declared Mrs. Jessie White, an enthusiastic member of the class. "We can do it ourselves, and we can do it without one speck of hurt to our modesty. There is absolutely nothing immodest about our suits, our dances, our drills, or anything we do. We are in this city to keep strong and well, and we maintain that is a worthy end. The exhibition is given solely to show our friends and relatives, male as well as female, how much progress we have made."

COUNCIL TO COGITATE

The Berkeley Women's Council, which was instrumental in the starting of the gymnasium class and which has objected to letting men into see its exhibition is to hold a meeting Monday evening to decide whether or no it will withdraw its official endorsement of the class. As the class has requested that it do so, permitting the class to continue its work unassisted and unimpeded, it is expected the council will acquiesce in its wish. The meeting of the council is to be held at the board of education rooms, and it is expected there

Santa Rosa

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 16.—Dr. D. A. McAfee of Berkeley, chairman of the conciliation committee of Oakland Presbytery said: "The Goodspeed matter will not come up unless an unforeseen combination forces us. I do not believe it will be touched upon at all."

RESIGNED TWO MONTHS AGO

Following a resignation filed two months ago, a stormy session before the presbytery, and finally ending in the pastor being supported by a three to one vote of his congregation, Rev. P. L. Goodspeed, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was yesterday requested by the committee appointed by the presbytery to adjust the dispute in the congregation to tender his resignation. The resignation was asked to take effect November 20. Dr. Goodspeed, declaring that he did not wish to stand in the way of progress in the church, tendered it. Several church officers, it is said, have also pastor's opponents declare that this cannot legally be done. Feeling has been high and bitter negotiations have been held between the two church factions. The trouble, which started at the time the church building movement was started, simmered for two years and finally broke out when the pastor

Sentenced for Theft
Of $40 Money Order

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Cleve A. Wingard was given one year in the Alameda County jail by U. S. Judge Dooling today as the result of the theft of a money order from a sub-station postoffice in Oakland over $400. Wingard was convicted of having worked the short-change game in a new way. He purchased a money order for $40, handing the woman clerk $25. She discovered the shortage after writing out the order. Wingard pretended to place it in an envelope, when he told her to keep for him until he could go and get $40. When he failed to return the envelope was opened and found to contain a blank piece of paper.

Wilson Sees Alleged Opposition Democrats

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Wilson sent today for Senators Hitchcock, Reed and O'Gorman, the three Democrats of the senate banking committee, who have been regarded as opposed to the administration program for currency legislation at the present session of congress. The president saw the senators separately and conferred at length with them.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—The steam schooner Merced is pounding to pieces on the rocks of Point Gorda, within 30 miles of Eureka this morning, but all of her passengers have been transferred to the oil steamer Atlas, of the Standard Oil company, according to wireless messages received by the owners, Charles R. McCormick & Co., of this city. Fears for the safety of the passengers and crew as the result of the first message received here at 7:45 this morning from Captain A. F. Asplund of the wrecked vessel are allayed.

At present the steamer Atlas is trying to get line to the Merced to tow the boat off the rocks, and the steamer Yosemite of the same line is hurrying to the point to lend a hand. The message this morning which caused apprehension was that the vessel was one of a more reassuring nature as follows:

"Oil steamer Atlas outside waiting for fog to clear. If we stay here long steamer will break up, as it is on rocks up to midships. Still heading bow on. Getting low tides. Vessel tumbling badly. ASPLUND."

This came at 7:45 a. m. and was followed a few moments later by the tidings that the Atlas had picked up

CHAMPION R. ROSE
DIES OF TYPHOID

Holder of Olympic and World's Records
Passes Away

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Ralph Rose, holder of the Olympic and world's records for shot-putting, died here today of typhoid fever after a brief illness.

Rose was the undisputed amateur champion of the world when it came to such athletic events as the shot-put. Attracted attention March 19, 1904, at Ann Arbor, Mich., when he put the 12-pound shot 54 feet 3 1/2 inches. The same year he established another world's record by putting the 24-pound shot 38 feet 2 1/2 inches in a contest at New York City.

Subsequently Rose bettered all these records and in 1907, in his prime, he caused a sensation throughout the athletic world by breaking every record he went after. He was the title holder in the eight-pound, 12-pound, 14-pound and 16-pound shot puts. His last record was made in San Francisco June 3, 1912, when in a shot-put contest he cast the weight 91 feet 10 1/2 inches.

Rose was one of the point winners on the American team which carried off the honors at the Olympic games in 1912. Rose was 27 years old and a native of Healdsburg. Most of his life has been spent in this state, though he studied law at the University of Chicago, making that his profession. He stood 6 feet 5 inches in height and weighed when in condition 230 pounds without muscles. His magnificent specimen of manhood was his performance were equal to his. He appeared in California always as a member of the Olympic club of San Francisco. Recently he had been devoting most of his time to his studies as a post-graduate student, and was on the road to success when illness overtook him.

Johnson to Campaign
During Vacation

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 16.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson will leave Sunday evening for the east on a three weeks' vacation, part of which he will devote to campaigning in Massachusetts for the election of Charles S. Bird, Progressive candidate for governor, with a day or two in New Jersey for speeches favoring Everett Colby, Progressive candidate for governor of that state.

More Births Than
Deaths in State

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 16.—There were 2524 births in California during the month of July, 2305 deaths and 2769 marriages, according to the report published today by Director George D. Leslie of the State Board of Health. Heart disease was lower than tuberculosis, 404 dying from the former while 413 died of consumption.

WISCONSIN'S GOVERNOR AGUEST

Congressman Knowland Shows Distinguished Visitor Oakland and Surroundings.

Commercial Club Members Entertain Executive at Hotel Oakland Luncheon.

Governor Francis McGovern of Wisconsin, who arrived in Oakland today, to choose the site for the Wisconsin building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, this morning was the guest in Oakland of Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, Commercial Club members and other prominent men. He was taken on an automobile ride through Oakland and its surrounding territory and later was entertained at an informal luncheon at the Hotel Oakland.

Governor McGovern was shown the points of interest, told of Oakland's hopes for the future, and expressed himself as impressed with the city's possibilities. "You have a fine city here," he said, "and I am sure that the future of the city is bright."

The governor and his party spoke highly of the city and of California at the luncheon at which Congressman Knowland presided. He was accompanied by Commissioners A. W. Fehn, Dr. A. J. Provost, J. T. Murphy and D. E. Bowe of his fair-choosing staff.

The party were guided over Oakland by Congressman Knowland, Manager of the Commercial Club, Joseph E. Baker, G. E. Daniels and Supervisor F. W. Foss.

The guests returned to San Francisco this afternoon. Tomorrow they will be entertained by Clarence E. Green of San Francisco.

night answer closely the descriptions of two of the men who were stopped by Guntner and who took his wheel and revolver and waist from him.

STRUCK WITH REVOLVER.

The bandits proved somewhat rough with George Bucher, 1695 Thirty-fifth avenue, one of the patrons of the saloon, when Bucher failed to throw up his arms fast enough.

Between 11 o'clock and midnight, the bandits, who were dressed in dark, heavy clothing, and who carried blue-barreled revolvers, both men had several days' growth of beard on their faces.

"Throw up your hands!" they commanded.

The men obeyed, and while one of the robbers covered Elferle, who was behind the bar, with his revolver, the other herded the six men into a rear room and locked them there, after making sure that no telephone was within reach.

The robbers took $28.55 from the cash drawer and $25 from Elferle's pocket.

Two men in the saloon at the time of the holdup were: William and Gilbert Wilmerdore, Thirty-fifth and Davis; George Bucher, 1695 Thirty-fifth avenue; Joseph Ward, 501 California street, San Francisco; Alex. Crall, East Twenty-seventh street, and Louis Hauser, 2405 Twenty-seventh avenue.

Corporal Foulter was notified and a posse was sent out from the Melrose station. The bandits had made good their escape.

HAYWARD PIONEER DIES

AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

HAYWARD, Oct. 13.—David S. Smalley, a resident of this city for the past fifty years, died at his lakeside home in Oakland yesterday afternoon after a brief illness. He was 53 years of age and was a native of New York.

He was one of the first members of the Hayward lodge of Odd Fellows, and was active in civic life here.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from his home in lower Castro street.

ARMADILLOS MUST LIVE, BUT WHO PAYS THE LIVER BILL?

Who is to pay for six pounds of liver, consumed by "Pedro" and "Esperanza," two armadillos, who have boarded at the Hotel Oakland for two days, waiting for the Brazilian ball? Not only the liver, but several frogs have gone toward the nourishment of the guests from the turbid Amazon, for it was at first planned to keep them temporarily in the same room with the frogs. For certain economic reasons, connected with the rule of the survival of the fittest, this was impossible.

Storekeeper Emery in Vallee ordered the armadillos placed in the ballroom after their onslaught on the frogs. He also ordered liver for their consumption. The management now has lost track of the owner of the creatures and is considering entering the matter in the books as profit and loss. A number of unfortunate shrimps also fell prey to the armadillos during their sojourn in the basement of the hotel.

STRANDED VESSEL HARD AND FAST

Efforts to float the wrecked Atlantic Unavailing; Passengers and Crew Safe.

The lifeboats which had been kept afloat all night, the crew fearing to beach them by reason of the treacherous breakers. This message came from the command.

"Atlas has picked up two lifeboats of Merced. Expect to get a line on board over a S. P. C. N. D."

The officials of the company on first learning of the disaster early this morning sent this wireless message to the command:

"Use every effort to get passengers to safety. Spare no expenses. Keep us fully posted."

"MCCORMICK."

At the same time a dispatch was sent to the steamer Yosemite, which was not far off, to put on all steam and hurry to the aid of the Merced, transferring the passengers as soon as possible after arrival. The oil steamer Atlas, however, was first on the scene, but it is likely if calm waters prevail the passengers will be shifted to the Yosemite, as there are no accommodations on the Atlas.

NOT MANY PASSENGERS.

The steamer Merced makes regular trips between Los Angeles and Portland or Gray's Harbor with San Francisco and Portland, and is a times carries as many as eighty passengers, but this time of the year the travel is light. She transports lumber to the south and returned north in ballast.

The steamer City of Topeka which is due to arrive in Eureka this morning is expected to bring news of the Merced, the captain of the vessels having spoken by wireless. It is understood that the steamer City of Topeka kept on her way on learning that the Atlas was standing by ready to do everything necessary and that the Yosemite was on its way to the aid of the Merced.

A tug was dispatched from Eureka on telegraphic advices from this city and should reach the scene at noon. The weather is reported as slightly warmer and with the aid of the tug and the other vessels the Merced may yet be hauled to dispatch a boat of their own line to render such assistance as might be needed.

TO BE TOTAL WRECK.

The Merced, it is believed, will be a total wreck. Water fills her hold. The following dispatch was received at 10:15 a. m. from Captain Asplund:

"Atlas has line fast, pulling. Rocks coming in line with engine room. Six feet of water in hold. Don't think we can get vessel off."

From the master of the Atlas this message was received:

"Am getting hawser on board Merced. Have not all passengers on board Atlas. Passengers and crew all safe."

The Merced is fully insured and no loss will result to the company from the wreck.

A message received from Captain Asplund at 11 a. m. was to the effect: "Atlas pulling heavy, but no move. Hold and engine room half full of water. Looks like vessel will break in two."

The steamer Yosemite reached the scene shortly after 10 a. m. and attempted to get a line on board the Merced.

Captain Asplund's wife was the only woman on board other than Miss Ressa, Read, a young actress enroute to visit her sick mother in Spokane. The two women were taken off with the other passengers. When Captain Asplund saw that the vessel was going to break up and that the hold was filling with water he ordered the chief engineer and the wireless operator to leave. These two with himself have been the only persons left after the crew was taken off at daybreak. All made their way safely to the Atlas, the wireless operator relieving the operator on that vessel. Messages are coming now from the Atlas and Yosemite.

GREAT TERMINAL FOR OAKLAND

Southern Pacific to Make Big Improvements Here.

tric system that has its nucleus in Oakland, and that one of the most problems to be solved is to what advantage shall be put the score of millions of dollars that the Southern Pacific has set aside for terminal facilities somewhere on San Francisco bay, and a disposition of the present terminals that are operated in conjunction with the Union Pacific railroad.

SAN JOAQUIN ELECTRIC PLAN.

The extensions for all-electric service to the San Joaquin valley are to important steps that may be taken is that which will give to Oakland all of the Southern Pacific passenger through-train terminals, with the practical elimination of Third and Townsend streets, San Francisco, for other than locals that have to be routed that way.

Even the work on the great Dumbarton freight yards will be held in limbo until the Southern Pacific and its kindred lines can decide just where the Central California terminals of the company shall be improved. Improvements aggregating $21,000,000 for which provision has already been made, will be started somewhere in the bay district and at Los Angeles. Owing to franchise difficulties in San Francisco, it is not believed that proposed extensions there will become actualities. It has been officially announced at the railroad offices in the Flac building that the Third and Townsend streets depot will not be replaced as contemplated, and it is now known there that the property purchased for terminal facilities at Market, Beale, Main and Mission streets will not be improved under existing conditions, but unimproved cases also having something to do with this.

SHOP STUDIES OAKLAND.

Paul Shoup, vice-president of the Southern Pacific and president of the electric roads of the Southern Pacific in California, has long been studying the Oakland terminal situation. It was made known today that Shoup's recent visit to Oakland was principally on account of proposed electric extensions in this part of the bay.

The alleged "strike-threatening" situation was only incidental to his coming. The strike has been settled and the Southern Pacific and the Pacific Electric are turning their attention to joint operation of the various lines on both systems with a view to obtaining depot and other facilities for both in bay cities and elsewhere.

THIS CITY MAIN TERMINAL.

It is expected that the Southern Pacific office that the largest amount of terminal facilities improvement which will be made by the Southern Pacific and its electric subsidiaries will be ordered for the city of Oakland. If present plans carry, there will be no further use of the coast line facilities for the rapidly extending "all-electric" service that is quietly being absorbed and connected up between this city and Los Angeles.

TERMINALS DESIRED.

The coming of President Bush of the Western Pacific has principally to do with the obtaining of terminals in Oakland, probably, it is rumored, through the absorption of the Oakland, Antioch and Eastern railroad.

The complete reorganization of the Western Pacific is to be a matter for study. It is not believed that the Southern Pacific officials have any prearranged meeting with Bush, but it is known that the Western Pacific head is personally friendly with Kruttschnitt and Sproule, and they may be some time in the future.

At the time the "big men" of the Southern Pacific, Pacific Electric, and possibly other lines, will have gathered for an extraordinary conference.

The building of a new Arcade station for Los Angeles has been ordered through an official report issued yesterday from the Flood building in San Francisco. It will cost about $600,000. The proposed Third and Townsend streets depot in San Francisco was not over indefinitely and extensive Oakland terminal improvements to cost millions were ordered placed under consideration for action regarding their building before 1915.

Sen. Martine Wants Treaty Repealed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Senator Martine of New Jersey urged the Senate today to recommend repeal of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty with Great Britain on the ground that it interferes with many American rights.

He said he had received many protests that the tariff bill's 5 per cent shipping rebate was a violation of the terms of the treaty. The senator added that he preferred a repeal of the treaty rather than a repeal of the 5 per cent rebate in the tariff law and predicted that the United States would have the advantage if it tried to make commercial treaties because of the 5 per cent rebate.

WOODEN, Oct. 13.—The reputation of even the world's baseball championship in America or the annual football finals in England is eclipsed by the fighting spectacle which is being arranged for next Sunday. The occasion is the farewell appearance in the arena of Bombita, the famous bull fighter, who is engaged to marry an English woman. Prices for seats have reached 500 pesetas (about $85), which is a figure unprecedented in the history of bull fighting.

Through the efforts of the local fire department, a blaze which destroyed a department in a basement of a shop on Tenth street near Franklin, was extinguished before it reached the ground floor of the building. There was no damage, as the rain was removed as soon as the odor of smoke was detected.

Forest Fire Force Heavily Increased

SAN JOSE, Oct. 13.—The forest fire fighting force has been increased to 500 men, and still there is grave doubt of the flames being brought under final control before further valuable territory has been burnt over. Two wide fire trails cut out last night and the usual night campness combined to improve the situation this morning, but with the afternoon breeze the flames are expected to make serious headway.

State Forest Inspector Dodge this morning dispatched a number of men to relieve a number of firefighters. The fire is pronounced the worst that has ever visited the Santa Cruz mountains.

10,000 Homeless in Fire at Shanghai

LONDON, Oct. 13.—A Central News dispatch from Shanghai says a great fire has been raging for hours today in a northern suburb of the city, half a square mile of which has been destroyed. Ten thousand people have been rendered homeless. The fire is now under control.

MATTRESS ABLAZE; FIRE ALARM SOUNDS

Through the efforts of the local fire department, a blaze which destroyed a department in a basement of a shop on Tenth street near Franklin, was extinguished before it reached the ground floor of the building. There was no damage, as the rain was removed as soon as the odor of smoke was detected.

suddenly tendered his resignation, declaring that he could not work in harmony with the church officials. The congregation voted three to one to support him. It was rumored that resignations of the church officers opposing Goodspeed would be demanded.

COMMITTEE ON CONCILIATION.

A committee was appointed at this time to conciliate the congregation, this committee consisting of Rev. L. A. McAfee of Berkeley; Rev. George C. Eldridge, also of Berkeley; Rev. Orlando H. Oakland, and Elders A. W. Beam of Hayward and W. A.

This committee at the time stated that it would only render advice in the matter, but later reconsidered this, and yesterday demanded Goodspeed's resignation. According to this committee that at any event he should be allowed to retain the church for one year. This agreement, say Goodspeed's friends, has been violated by the committee.

The committee refused to tell the pastor that he was not to resign.

WARRING PAIR MAY FIND PEACE

Statement Issued by Wife of Oil Man Hints of a Reconciliation.

Mrs. Drummond Says "My Husband Will Stand
by Me."

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Joseph Eastland, wife of a well-known oil man, who has been named as the "other woman," by Mrs. Evers Drummond, in her suit for divorce against Jack Drummond, the San Diego millionaire, yesterday made her first statement regarding her connection with the case.

Incidentally Mrs. Eastland hinted that she expected a reconciliation with her husband. She recently stated her husband, who left last night for Santa Barbara to meet Eastland, she declared he will stand by her in the forthcoming Drummond divorce trial, which is scheduled to take place before Judge Monroe on October 24.

"I expect to see Mr. Eastland tonight. Why shouldn't I?" said Mrs. Eastland yesterday morning, in her apartment at the Alexandria.

SAYS IT IS FOOLISH.
"It is so foolish for anyone to imagine that my husband and I have had any differences over Mrs. Drummond's unkind and unjust accusations. He trusts me completely and knows, as everyone who has ever known me must know, that Mrs. Drummond has no foundation of truth for the things she has said of me. My husband and I are not able to live happily together, but that is often the case with people who are the best of friends."

"A reconciliation?" Mrs. Eastland's Japanese blue eyes smiled reminiscently, and her slender, nervous hand drew countless circles on the paper before her.

"I cannot say anything about that now. But this I will say: My husband will stand by me and fight to the last stand during this coming divorce trial. Later—who can tell?"

"And believe me, I will fight!" Mrs. Eastland threw back her head and drew a quick breath.

"I will fight for my reputation, my children and my self-respect. I am not afraid, and know I shall win."

"FRIENDSHIP IMPOSSIBLE."
"It is a very terrible thing that friendship—good, dear, wholesome friendship between men and women is being made impossible." A stern, hard look came about the fine mouth.

"Women demand a place in the world with men—equality with men—and yet they cannot and will not understand the possibilities of friendship between men and women. It is narrow, weak and inconsistent, and spoils their whole argument."

"Mr. Drummond and I have been friends—yes! I hope we always will be—but there has never been anything in look, word or deed to give Mrs. Drummond the right to accuse me of breaking up her home. She and Mr. Drummond were not living together when I met him."

"I will be mighty glad to see Mr. Eastland," she continued. "This is a very terrible thing for a woman to go through, even when she is supported by the consciousness of innocence. I am talking to you today for the first time because I want people to understand and to know me as I am. I am unafraid—yes, I'll be mighty glad to see my husband."

Drummond, who is the son of a famous tobacco magnate, said yesterday:

READY TO FIGHT.
"Mrs. Eastland is quite right. This will be a fight, and a fight for her. If she had not been dragged into this I would willingly have compromised outside of court for the sake of my little daughter, but I feel it my duty to clear Mrs. Eastland's name of any cloud. She is a brave woman and we are ready to fight. I am only sorry the case has been put over until the 24th, for I want to get it over. Only one side of this story has been given to the public, but I will be able to show that I am not to blame. Above all, I want to defend Mrs. Eastland. It will be a very interesting fight, I guess."

Mrs. Drummond is suing for divorce on the grounds of infidelity, cruelty and desertion. She demands custody of the little daughter and an allowance. The case was to have come up today before Judge Monroe, but has been postponed until October 24.

RELEASED FROM JAIL;
REARRESTED AT ONCE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Immediately on his release from the Alameda county jail today, Captain John Wooters of San Diego was taken into custody by a deputy marshal and brought before United States Judge Dooling. He was ordered taken to Los Angeles, where an indictment has been found charging him with smuggling Chinese into this state. The defendant has just completed a year's term on a similar charge.

INCREASED SALE OF
CHEWING TOBACCO

Recent Reports Indicate That It Is Rapidly Growing in Favor.

Recent increases in the sales of Spear Head, a high grade chewing tobacco, are indicated by the fact that the manufacturers of Spear Head are taking advantage of the present trend to bring this tobacco to the general attention of tobacco users.

Local tobacco dealers have been told with a limited number of Spear Head tobacco and handkerchiefs.

Ritual Murder Trial Witness
Says Offer Was Made to Shoulder Guilt.

KIEV, Russia, Oct. 16.—Evidence was given today at the resumption of the trial of Mendel Beiliss, for the alleged murder of Andrew Yushinsky in 1911, by a witness who claimed to be the mother of the murdered boy's play fellows. She testified that the woman Malitzky who occupied a room above that of the Tcherbiak, had denounced her because of an old quarrel. The witness also said a journalist, Brazil Bruskovsky, declared that her husband would lose his position in the postoffice unless he assisted in discovering the murderers.

Mrs. Beiliss swore that she was offered $25,000 to take the guilt on her own shoulders, those making the offer saying it was necessary to refute the charges.

MANY 'AFFINITIES,' MUTUAL CHARGE

Even Wife's Counsel, Candidate for Supervisor, in Hoberg's Category.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Attorney George A. Connelly, a candidate for supervisor, and counsel for Mrs. Irene Hoberg, is accused of being the woman's affinity in a statement made by Alfred Hoberg, her husband, whom she is suing for divorce, and by the latter's mother.

The case is being tried in Superior Judge Trout's court.

Hoberg is a clerk in a downtown department store. His wife accuses him of staying out nights, having affairs, and throwing tubs at her head. He claims that when the mother had their four-year-old child one night, the youngster returned intoxicated and fell over in a stupor. On the husband's side of the case, also, the contention is made that Connelly is one of three of Mrs. Hoberg's affinities.

Both allegations are strenuously denied by the wife and mother of the accused.

CIGAR STORES GET TEN-YEAR LEASE

United Company Obtains the Ground Floor of New Building.

Another significant indication of the reorganization of the business district and of the decided northwest movement of the traffic center of Oakland is seen in a transaction consummated today by Herman Rittigstein, leasing manager of the Layman Real Estate Company, in the leasing of the entire ground floor of the Heeseman-Hoffman building, on the northwest corner of Fifteenth and Washington streets and San Pablo avenue, now a district of great department stores and office buildings.

The Heeseman-Hoffman building occupies a very conspicuous position and is a beautiful structure in granite, colored brick and ornamental terra cotta. The upper six stories will cater to high-class office tenants.

The building has a frontage of about 70 feet on Washington street. The corner 11 feet will be occupied as a cigar store. The leases and the balance will be subdivided into small stores, for which tenants have already been secured. The entire front will be set in verdant antique marble and ornamental bronze.

Negotiations several months ago for the erection of an office building on this corner by the United Cigar Stores Company were unsuccessful.

WILSON'S EAR IN PETE'S STOMACH

At Least This Is Supposition of Police, After Prisoners' Fight.

Pedro Sanchez, well known in the sporting world as "Mexican Pete" Everett, last night bit off the ear of John Wilson in a fight with Wilson in the Sixth street police lockup. It is believed that Sanchez swallowed the ear, as a search of the lockup and of the Mexican's pockets failed to disclose what had become of the auricle. Sanchez probably will be charged with mayhem.

Wilson was arrested last night with Manuel S. Perry by Patrolman Brock and Buckley, and was placed in the Sixth street lockup. Later Sanchez was arrested for drunkenness by Corporal A. B. Smith.

It is believed that the two men became engaged in an argument over the ownership of Sanchez's watch, which was found in Wilson's pocket after the fray. When the police came to remove the men from the lockup about midnight they found Wilson and Sanchez locked in each other's arms, and Sanchez was biting Wilson's ear.

It was with difficulty that the police dragged the two fighters apart, and in doing so they assisted Sanchez in tearing away almost the entire left ear of his opponent. Wilson was taken to the receiving hospital for treatment, and it was hoped that if the ear was sewn back immediately it might be saved. But a search failed to reveal the location of the missing auricle.

A guilty expression worn by Sanchez has led the police to the belief that he knows where the ear is but is ashamed to tell.

SCOTTISH RITE BODIES

The Scottish Rite bodies of this city will attend a social to be held this evening in Scottish Rite Temple, Fifteenth and Madison streets. It will be one of the first affairs of the season and will be attended by members of the Masonic fraternity and their guests. During the evening a number of vocal selections will be given by the Girls' Glee Club. At the close of the program dancing will be the diversion. The committee in charge includes M. S. Stewart, chairman; B. C. Hill, A. L. Jackson, D. B. Wylie and A. H. Ziegler.

MCDONALD HEIRSS TO OPEN DEPOSIT BOX

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Whether or not $100,000 reposes in a safe deposit box in the Metropolitan Savings Bank, will not be determined until next week when Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, heir of the late R. H. McDonald, will open the box in the presence of the interested parties. It is believed that $100,000 in bonds constituted the entire property until yesterday when mention was made of a possible $100,000.

Attorney William H. Jordan, representing Mrs. Baker, declared today that the box would not be disturbed until every one could be present.

Members of the ladies' auxiliary of the Stationary Engineers' Union will be hostesses at a house warming and dance to be given this evening in Starr King hall, Fourteenth and Castro streets. The affair will be the first public undertaking of the club, which was organized six months ago. It has an enrollment of 75 members. The officers are Mrs. A. Von Much, president; Mrs. E. E. Squires, vice-president; Mrs. A. M. Periera and Mrs. J. J. O'Brien, cashiers.

The details for the function are being perfected by a committee composed of Mrs. M. Barron, Mrs. T. J. Roberts, Mrs. C. Helm and Mrs. G. F. Amides.

SUES TO RECOVER
$1000 FROM WIFE

Suit to recover $1000 from his wife was commenced today by Charles S. Gladfelter, a salesman living at 772 Forty-third street, Pleasanton.

After his marriage to Julia Gladfelter in February, 1906, he turned money over to her with the understanding that she was to get back the expended portion of it when demanded.

On October 10, but that she refused to give it to him.

URGE PURCHASE OF ROAD BONDS

"Hands Around Harbor" Boosters Meet to Discuss Highways.

Suggesting the urgent need of the boards of supervisors about San Francisco purchasing state highway bonds in sufficient amounts to pay for state roadways within their respective boundaries, not only as a great improvement to the county itself but also as a fine business proposition, a resolution was adopted yesterday noon by the "Hands Around the Harbor" committee at the Hotel Oakland. It is argued that by buying the state bonds at par and then reselling them, the county can for a very small sum secure the needed roads. As an example, it is exemplified that the county may buy at par $100,000 worth of state bonds. By disposing of these for $90,000 the county would have a net gain of $10,000.

The committee decided to attend the counties convention to be held at Hanford November 7 and 8. Arrangements have been made for a special Pullman to leave Richmond on November 6th over the Santa Fe. Edward F. Trefz, field agent for the United States Chamber of Commerce, addressed the meeting and announced that a permanent branch office of his organization would be opened in San Francisco within a few weeks.

Those present were Arthur Arlett, Managing Director Joseph E. Caine of the Oakland Commercial Club, O. E. Hotte, Walter H. Leimert, M. J. Layman of Oakland, R. E. Hale, William J. Dutton, A. C. Bohrmann, Robert Newton Lynch, W. D. Fennimore of San Francisco, Senator J. C. Owens of Richmond, John J. Mazza of San Rafael, J. E. Godley of Vallejo. Guests at the meeting were Governor George C. Johnson, Assistant District Attorney Leon A. Clark of Oakland, and Edward F. Trefz, field agent of the United States Chamber of Commerce. W. J. Dutton presided.

RESEARCH EXPECTED TO UNFOLD HISTORY

In an effort to trace the route of the early settlers of Central California before the "gringos" took possession of the country, Henry Lachman, a retired capitalist living in the Gallegos home at Mission San Jose, will conduct a party of historians through Alameda and Contra Costa counties next Sunday. In the company will be a number of professors from Stanford University: E. P. H. Troy, historian of the Native Sons, and Congressman Knowland, who has taken a personal interest in the preservation of the California landmarks.

Lachman's party will visit the home of Mrs. Phoebe Hearse, near Pleasanton, where there is an old adobe near an Indian settlement. It is said that in the heart of Pleasanton there was an adobe, which, during the days of Joaquin Murietta, was utilized as headquarters for his band of bandits.

Suggestions Solicited

No words could better express the business ideals of the officials of The Bowman Drug Co. than these of the head of one of the largest mercantile establishments in the United States in the recent issue of a business journal:

"No matter how large the business grows, it is always an expression of personal force, just as the personal force of a nation is the sum total of the personal force of its people. We believe that our customers and employees feel that our business is as much a matter of personality today as it was in the beginning. Behind each transaction is personal guarantee, and we trust that behind each customer is personal interest in the growth and the perfecting of a system that seeks to interpret the personal desires of each man, woman or child who deals with it."

"Thus its policy is a composite of the ideas of all its customers and employees."

RELIAE DISINFECTANTS ARE NECESSARY TO EVERY HOME.

We have two disinfectants, one of which should be used in every home in Alameda county every once in a while.

One of them is called Bowman's Liquid Disinfectant and sells for 25c a bottle. This is a formaldehyde preparation of genuine merit.

The other is called Bowman's Cresophene, and sells for 25c and 50c. Cresophene is to be used with water and is one of the safest and most efficacious disinfectants we know of.

Of course we carry all kinds of disinfectants, but the above are of known efficiency and when it becomes advisable to use something of this kind you want to know that you are accomplishing the desired result.

BRAZIL PALES AT SPLENDOR OF BALL

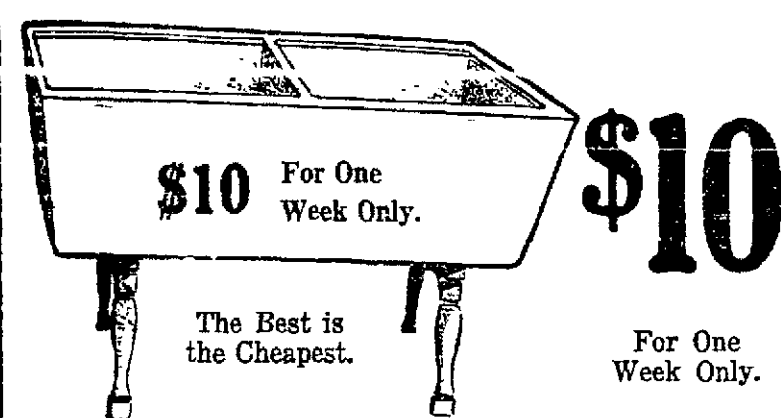

Star-Studded Skies and Tropical Fruits Mirror Glories.

Even Birds and Monkeys Are Deceived by Settings for Tonight.

Loaded with tropical fruits, among the branches of which brilliantly plumaged birds will sing, little stars gleaming overhead to outline the constellations of the southern heavens, tonight will be the setting for the most brilliant affair of the season: the Brazilian Night Ball. Hurrying carpenters and electricians this afternoon gave their final touches to the great one door, the menagerie men entered to the other. Glimmering monkeys were chained to branches, and at one end of the room, fastened to a horizontal wire with a chain and ring, a huge tawny wildcat was tethered. The great cat was allowed the full length of the room, along the wall by the device. Cats and monkeys are fastened by bonds that would hold a horse, but still are nearly invisible. Hidden in the overhanging branches near the sixteen foot waterfall which will play throughout the evening, the orchestra will play the strains of the Argentine tango. In the midst of the "jungleized" ball room, society's most famous dancers will demonstrate the new dance. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crane, directing the affair, gave the decorations their final approval this morning. The work is, say the directors of the affair, the most elaborate ever planned by Albert Farr, the architect who superintended and designed the scheme. Then tango numbers will be the big feature of the evening. Among the stars who will take part in the Count Mongelas and Mrs. Coleridge Fritz, Walter Leimert and Mrs. Douglas Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnham and Douglas Crane and Mrs. E. B. Hewitt.

JUST LIKE AT HOME. Three orchestras will be hidden in the greenery. The entire room is lined with green and branches. Long haired llamas will stalk through the jungle trees, and coatiote and parrots will screech overhead. Eight hundred and fifty guests. It is estimated, will be present when the ball will start. Many guests are planned at the hotel to take place before the ball. The Southern Pacific, to accommodate the automobile travelers from across the bay, especially the Burlingame set, who are coming in their machines will run boats over the Harbor Ferry at 2, 2:30 and 3 o'clock in the morning. Acceptances have poured in today. Up to 1 o'clock the following had signed:

Drug-Users Caught Posing for Movies

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Twenty dreamers who are accustomed to be lulled to sleep by the narcotic effect of drugs, hyperdermically administered, posing in the last stages of their craving for morphine, were captured by Inspector Fred Sutherland of the state pharmacy board this morning. They were all gathered in a vacant lot at Grant avenue and Pacific street, where they were going through a series of gyrations for the benefit of a moving picture man. They had been corralled by H. J. Lewis, a Chinatown guide, for the benefit of the film manufacturers, and were to receive $1 each.

Sutherland, after spilling the plan of the movies, hinted that he might ask the revocation of Lewis' license at the hands of the board of police commissioners.

William McGuire, a Twenty-seventh street cooper who ran down and killed John McNeill in Emeryville Tuesday, was the man who collided in an automobile with Theodore W. Leidesdorfer of Alameda August 3 at Eleventh and Webster streets. Leidesdorfer sustained a compound fracture of the left knee. It is the worst automobile mishap since that date.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Arrived—At the home of Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall, a baby boy. All concerned are doing well.

This announcement did not appear in any newspaper today, but the baby arrived last night, and today he is in complete charge of the Marshall apartments in a downtown hotel.

He is Thomas Marshall Southernland, 4 years old, of Bentley Springs, W. Va., and on the occasion of his previous visit to Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall in May he aided in precision over the deliberations of the Senate from a seat on Mr. Marshall's knee.

The youngster is a great favorite of Mrs. Marshall and she grew lonesome for his company. Accordingly, Mark Thistlethwaite, the vice-president's secretary, was dispatched to West Virginia to open negotiations with the parents of young Thomas Marshall Mr. Thistlethwaite arrived last night with the youngster and the permission of his parents that he might make a lengthy visit. The Marshalls have no children.

FEWER INSPECTORS OF BRICK ALLOWED

In view of the fact that the city is over what pressed for money, the Building Trades Council requested this morning to a reduction of the number of inspectors of brick work on the public schools from five to one. The demand for brick inspectors resulted in a walk-out of the men on the Perry-street school, and almost caused a general strike on school work.

The new agreement will provide that the inspector will go from building to building making careful inspection of the works.

The Building Trades Council this morning filed a letter with the city council asking for the appointment of an inspector of painting on the new city hall. The letter was referred to Commissioner of Public Works Anderson.

Claims against the city bond funds were allowed by the city council as follows: Dillon Thompson & Co., $500; Moore & Burlingame, $10,142.45; and Van Sant-Houghton Company $1123.34.

"It is an inspiration to see the new spirit of enterprise and development displayed throughout the interior of the State," said Secretary A. J. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce, who has just returned from a flying trip to several cities of the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys.

GOV. WEST REMOVES NAVAL MILITIA MAN

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 16.—Governor West today revoked the commission of Lieutenant Commander E. E. Last week the governor removed the same officer from the state naval militia on the ground of non-attendance at meetings.

PLAY IS SUPPRESSED

Sacramento Commissioners Order Chief of Police To Put Stop to Advertised Show.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 16.—The City Commissioners passed a resolution barring the play advertised to be presented tonight. The city attorney was directed to notify the theater manager, and the chief of police was directed to see that the order was enforced. Commissioner Caragher saw the play in Oakland Thursday night and it was on his recommendation that it has been barred here.

ONE SHOT, SEVERAL HURT IN CAR RIOTS

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 16.—One man was shot and probably fatally injured, another seriously hurt when a mob of the city, with a stone, and fourteen others arrested, the result of a fierce fight in the heart of the business district here tonight between union and non-union street railway employees. All of the police reserves were called out and were unable to quell the riot for more than an hour. Of the men arrested, twelve were wounded.

The several attempts have been made to unloose employees of the traction lines centering in Indianapolis and numerous fights between the union and non-union have resulted. The union men held a meeting tonight and after the session marched through the business district they met non-union men and the riot followed.

MAKES PLEA FOR TENNIS AT STANFORD

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 15.—Intercollegiate tennis in California is facing disaster unless Stanford allows her winning tennis players to wear a "Big S," according to R. Lynn Murray, university tennis champion and former varsity captain. Murray points out that such a seemingly small matter really has the significant effect of causing high school tennis cracks to go to the University of California where the "Big C" is allowed tennis men and he predicts that Stanford never will win another intercollegiate tennis championship unless that game is reclassified as a first class sport.

Four years ago tennis at Stanford was reduced from a major to a minor sport. Murray's opinions, which appeared on the campus today in the October number of a college magazine, have stirred up student feeling strongly.

Safeguards Thrown Around a Bank

Every National Bank is examined twice a year, without previous notice or warning, by a representative of the federal government.

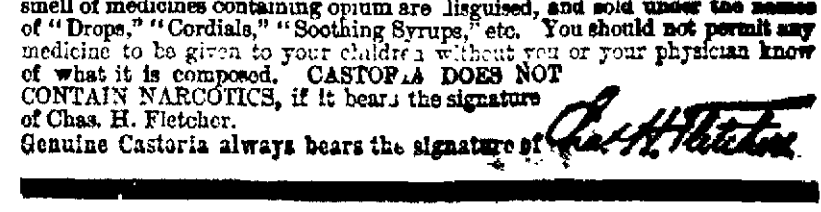

Five times a year each National Bank is required to publish a sworn statement of its condition.

In many other ways the government keeps a close watch on National Banks. The First National Bank of Oakland entered the national system in 1875, and therefore has been under government supervision for 38 years.

President Wilson and Huerta.

Theodore Roosevelt recently inveighed against President Wilson for his alleged lack of firmness in dealing with the Mexican situation. He said the President had not protected American citizens in their personal and property rights and had permitted the United States to be insulted and flouted in Mexico. But he refrained from saying whom the President should call to account or what step should be taken to enforce American rights in Mexico.

Now comes the Fresno Republican, which worships at the Colonel's shrine, with an ambiguous criticism of the President's warning to Huerta. It says the notification that the United States "would look with displeasure on any injury to the Mexican deputies now under arrest," means, in plain English, that the President of the United States informs the alleged president of Mexico that he is a murderer and a tyrant, and is intended to be taken as such.

While the editor of the Republican was translating the President's meaning into plain English he should have stated in equally plain English what he thought the President ought to have said and done. In what terms should the President have couched the warning for Huerta not to murder the imprisoned deputies? Or does our Fresno contemporary think the President should have kept silent and not "insulted" the Mexican dictator by politely telling him the United States would be displeased if the imprisoned deputies came to harm? Public sentiment even in his own country regards Huerta as a tyrant and a murderer. The Fresno paper reads that view of Huerta into a courteous warning sent him by President Wilson, and in the comment on this interpretation of the President's language no hint is given whether the President did right or wrong. The inference is that he insulted a friendly nation and outraged a courteous kindly gentleman by insinuating that he was contemplating murder.

The warning to Huerta could not have been framed in milder language. It was timely and it was necessary. Popular sentiment in the United States approves it, and public sentiment in this country places the same estimate on Huerta's character and pretensions that public opinion in Mexico does.

It may be that President Wilson's warning will be disregarded. President Taft's warning in the case of Madero was disregarded. Possibly Huerta may regard the "insult" offered him by the President of the United States as proof that the imprisoned deputies are guilty of sedition. Does our Fresno contemporary think he would be justified in drawing this conclusion?

Madero was not under the protection of the United States. Neither are the members of the Mexican Congress Huerta has mewed up. The warning of President Wilson is intended as a notification that the government of the United States will regard Huerta as an outlaw if he puts these men to death. It does not necessarily mean that an army will be sent against Huerta if he does not heed the warning, but is a reason given to all the world, as well as Huerta, why our government will cease to hold amicable relations with Huerta or his government. President Wilson was simply telling Huerta what was feared and how the murder of the deputies would be regarded by civilized mankind. It was not a threat, as the Fresno Republican alleges, but an effort to have Huerta stay his hand by invoking the power of public opinion.

No doubt the Fresno Republican will be a hostile critic of the President no matter what occurs. The article we are now commenting on conveys that impression. It does not read as if it were inspired by other than partisan animosity seeking a pretext to condemn. Plainly the President's meaning is translated into terms of deadly insult, not only to Huerta but the Mexican nation as a whole, and that it conveyed a threat to invade the country. Patriotism did not dictate that article. It is not candid and it is not fair to the President or the government he represents.

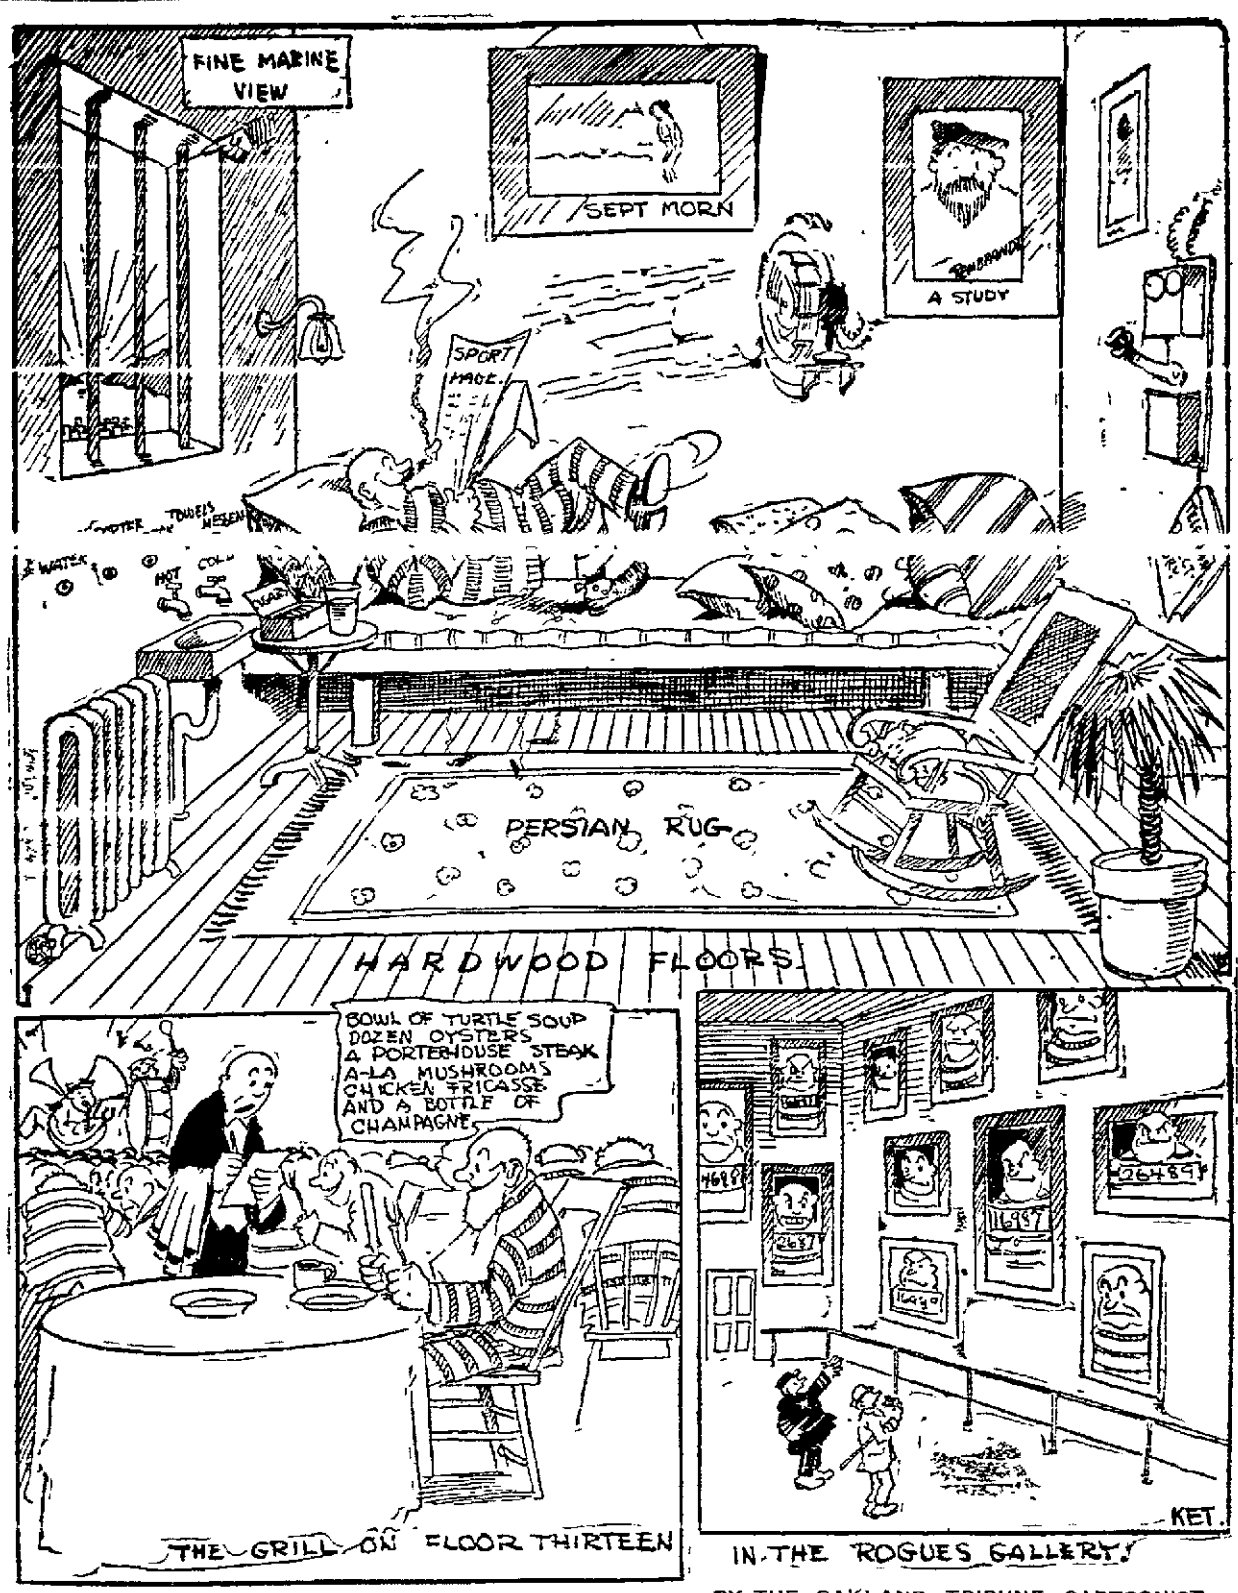

Emeryville will not be made a redlight annex to the Barbary Coast in San Francisco. There is no evidence that any such scheme was ever contemplated by any responsible person, but the District Attorney would not permit it in any event. The talk of a redlight colony in Emeryville appears to have grown out of the rivalries of local politicians. Still it is not unlikely that there was talk among the Barbary Coast denizens about moving over to Emeryville if they were assured of a hospitable reception. No such assurance was given by anybody, it seems, but if a Barbary Coast colony has been invited over, District Attorney Hynes has vetoed the invitation. There will be no repetition of the Barbary Coast orgies in this county.

A Reformer Confesses Failure.

By way of boast, rather than confession, the Enquirer admits that it failed to drive the saloons out of the residence districts. It says, with its customary truthfulness, that it "waged a war against saloons in residence districts which has resulted in the preparation of an ordinance about to be enacted whereby that curse will be eliminated." So the pending ordinance was prepared at the instigation of the Enquirer. But the war waged by that paper against saloons in residence districts did not disturb the saloons. The elimination of the saloon from residence districts did not become an imperative issue till THE TRIBUNE took up the fight in earnest. The Enquirer's Pickwickian war against vice was fruitless. Nothing moved till THE TRIBUNE put its shoulder to the wheel, and the moment it began to push the reform car forward the Enquirer began to pull back. The Enquirer has given no aid to the present movement to reform liquor traffic thus far. It says the pending ordinance will be passed, but it does not urge its passage. Why it has failed to effect any reforms is indicated by the suddenness with which it dropped its fight on certain cafes. The wars it has waged have been waged by calling names and hurling stinkpots—and then getting squared.

Some of the city officials would spend less time in trying to create public sentiment in the matter of the liquor ordinance and have more time to devote to the public business. They are paid for giving their attention to. Also there is a complaint of inattention to official business.

When Our Aerial Jail de Luxe Is Completed

Assessed Valuations and the Tax Rate.

Los Angeles has the largest assessed valuation of any county in the State. She has also a territory much larger than San Francisco or Alameda. Her territorial area embraces 4200 square miles, while Alameda has only 600 and San Francisco but 47. Even if her assessment roll be padded, as one of the San Francisco papers intimates, the policy of having a big assessment roll and a low tax rate is a good one. The law requires that property shall be assessed at its full cash value, but this provision of the statute is ignored. Usually the assessed valuation is in the neighborhood of sixty per cent of the actual value, generally it is lower and often it is as low as thirty per cent. In this county we have a low assessed valuation, but the tax rate robs the low assessed valuation of comfort save in individual cases. It is not likely that the assessment of Los Angeles county is above the actual cash value. If property is assessed there at its full cash value, the burdens of taxation are equitably distributed, the tax rate kept down and the law complied with. A sliding scale of valuation in making assessments for taxation purposes favors tax dodging, inequity in imposing the burdens of the cost of government and forces the tax rate up to a figure higher than it should be. The small property owner invariably suffers from the undervaluing system, and the entire community suffers from the bad advertisement given by an excessive tax rate. The Los Angeles plan of having a full assessment and a low tax rate is the better way. It conveys the idea of prosperity and low taxes. Besides it is just and lawful.

The Oregon hen that holds the world's record for egg laying is a college pullet. Who says higher education is a failure?

A Typical Progressive.

Senator Norris of Nebraska says he is in favor of government control (of the national reserve banks) as distinguished from bank control, but adds that he is more opposed to partisan political control than he is to any other kind. It seems that he is opposed to the control feature of the Glass bill because he differs politically with the President and the party in power. We dislike the bill because we believe it will contract the currency and curtail credits rather than expand the currency and make credits freer and money accommodation easier to obtain; but Senator Norris' objections sound very much like a poor excuse for opposing the bill on partisan grounds. Mr. Norris, then a member of the House, violently opposed the Aldrich bill because it did not provide for government control. He opposes the Glass bill because it does not provide for exactly the kind of government control he wants.

Senator Norris is showing the same contrariness on currency legislation that he did on the tariff. He was bitterly opposed to the Payne-Aldrich bill because it did not cut duties as deeply as he thought they ought to be cut. He wanted the tariff revised downward, and very much downward. But when tariff revision downward came in earnest, he was opposed to it. It was not the kind of revision he wanted. He wanted a tariff for protection. The other kind was good enough to make a campaign on, but when it came to actual legislation the old reliable Republican doctrine suited him. So he voted against the Under-

Senator Norris is a typical Progressive. His practice does not square with his professions. He is never wanting in pretexts to oppose what others do. It would be impossible to legislate at all if every member of Congress insisted that each bill should comply in all respects with his views. There is always something to object to—the flag, the general or the plan of campaign.

JAPAN'S NEXT BIG ADVANCE

The remarkable achievements of Japan during the last half century have chiefly been the work of its educated sons. The part played in its international life by the gentler sex has hitherto been insignificant. The next step in Japan's progress must be taken by its educated daughters for whose education along foreign lines, especially in the languages of the great nations, Japan has made provision by the establishment during the last 25 years of many educational institutions for girls and women. But Japan has not yet come to as full a realization as western nations have of the significance of the role played by women as social factors. It is common observation among Americans that the careers of Japanese diplomats, visitors and residents in the United States are greatly furthered by their wives or daughters who have good knowledge of the English language and tact in adapting themselves to American usages. For Japan's attainment of social equality with western nations, nothing could be more urgent than the education and modernization of her women—From the Bulletin of the Japan Society.

SPRY OLD AGE

Speaking at the Boston College of Physicians and Surgeons, Dr. L. L. Nascher of New York advanced some novel ideas on how to beat old age. Persons getting on in years should not, he says, slump physically and mentally. They should brace up the more, pay increased attention to their appearance, seek the society of younger persons, frequent the musical comedy and burlesque houses, stimulate the circulation by baths and massage, remove wrinkles, cultivate what hair they have left, sport a cane, and wear braces to overcome the stoop. The attitude of the younger toward the aging should also be altered. They should not make fun of the efforts of their elders to keep young and cheerful. They should welcome seeming "fiddleness" as a hopeful sign and encourage the tendency.

There is nothing inherently impossible, says Dr. Nascher, in the idea that we can stimulate the functions of the senile tissues, increase metabolic activity and control certain factors that contribute to old age, and thereby improve the mentality and the appearance of aged people. Pride and even vanity are to be desired as aids in postponing senility. As we all expect to be old some day, let us help the idea along and do what we can to assist our older acquaintances in stimulating their senile tissues and increasing their metabolic activity.—Pittsburg Dispatch

WOULD DOUBLE STRENGTH OF MILITIA

One National Guardsman for Every "Regular," Plan of Forbes.

Wants 30,000 Men Available for Active Duty in State.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 15.—One National Guardsman in California and

"regular" is the desire of the United States war department, according to adjutant-general Edwin A. Forbes, who returned recently from Chicago, where the adjutant-generals met in a conference with federal department officials. To carry out this projected plan, General Forbes said today, would necessitate doubling the strength of the California National Guard, which now numbers about 15,000 officers and men.

It is the plan of the war department to establish an army division of nine regiments in California. This would mean an approximate war strength of 15,000 men and in times of peace 10,000 men," said General Forbes.

"In order to comply with the wishes of the war department, the next legislature must double the National Guard appropriation."

WANTS 30,000 MEN.

General Forbes said that it was the desire of the government to have 30,000 men available for active duty in California. That a general improvement of the entire Pacific coast defense, from San Diego to Port Townsend, Wash., was projected by the department was the impression the general gained at the conference, he said.

General Forbes said he felt that it was practically assured the National Guard convention and the convention of adjutant-generals would be held in San Francisco in 1915.

"I succeeded in sending the two conventions to Boston for 1914 with a tacit understanding that California would get in the following year," said General Forbes.

General Forbes said he felt that it was practically assured the National Guard convention and the convention of adjutant-generals would be held in San Francisco in 1915.

INTERIOR CITIES ADVOCATE HARBOR

Richmond Project Meets With Favor From Adjacent Communities.

RICHMOND, Oct. 15.—Resolutions endorsing the harbor project of Richmond to be forwarded to the rivers and harbors board of Congress and the United States board of engineers, have been adopted by the city council and chambers of commerce of Modesto, Fresno and Marquette in the interior of the state, according to advices which City Clerk A. C. Farris has received in answer to a communication which he recently mailed, asking that such action be taken. He has also received a letter from Sacramento stating that the council there has the matter under consideration and a place with a short time Steadman and has been asked to endorse the project, but as yet has not been heard from. It is thought that the endorsement by many cities throughout the state will have weight with the government officials, as such cities have no selfish motive.

SEEK ONE-CENT LETTER POSTAGE

Oakland Merchants Pleased With Determined Campaign; Will Reintroduce Bills.

Business men of this city are pleased with the determined campaign which is being made to secure 1-cent letter postage. Many are joining the National One-Cent Letter Postage Association, and are assisting the work for the lower rate. Bills are to be re-introduced in Congress, and very energetic efforts will be made by the association to secure their passage.

O. F. Olsen of the John Bremer Company of this city is taking an active interest in the campaign, and is urging local business men to give their support to the movement.

"We have been entitled to a lower rate on letter postage for many years," declares O. F. Olsen, who is now conducting a campaign to secure a lower rate.

"No concerted effort has previously been made to secure it. The National One-Cent Letter Postage Association has been organized, and has several thousand members scattered all over the Union. This association has for its sole purpose the cutting down of the present exorbitant rate of letter postage."

STILL IN VOGUE.

In 1845, letters of one-half ounce or less were carried by mail over 300 miles for 25 cents. Similar high rates prevailed elsewhere. The act of March 3, 1879, established the present rate of 1 cent, still in vogue, despite the fact that the Postoffice Department makes enormous profits from this class of mail every year.

In 1911, over 3,500,000,000 pieces of first-class mail were carried by the Postoffice Department. The cost of handling and carriage, according to the department, was about $100,000,000. The revenue collected was about $17,000,000, leaving a net profit of about $83,000,000. A proportionate profit has been made for each year of the last score.

"Business men of the United States are being required to pay this exorbitant profit, furnishing the department with a large yearly surplus over the cost of its service. It was never intended that letter postage should pay a profit. The policy of the department, as outlined by the Postmaster-General, still continues to be that cost of service rendered shall be paid by each class of users of the mails, and that only cost shall be collected from any class."

BITES INTO PEARL WORTH THOUSANDS

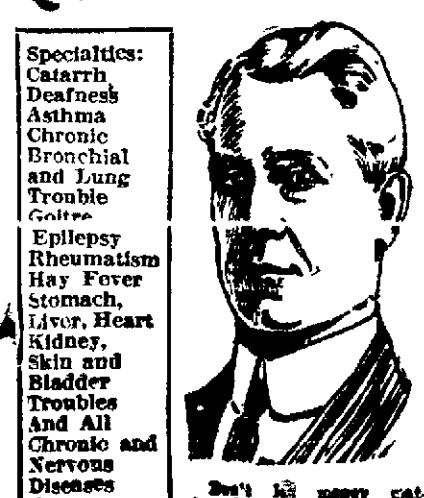

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—George Rogovoy, a Russian tourist who is visiting in this city with his wife, dined in a fashionable restaurant in Chestnut street. While he was eating his third oyster Rogovoy bit into something hard.

He took the substance from his mouth and threw it along the floor with impatience. His wife, who is a practical woman, said:

"My dear, that might have been a pearl!"

"Fool!" said Rogovoy. Nevertheless when his teeth again closed upon something else hard in his sixth oyster he took it from his mouth and examined it. Then he and his wife went to a Chestnut street jeweler and were informed that the object was a pear-shaped pearl of perfect contour and about twice as large as a large pea. They were told it was worth $5000. Now Rogovoy is wondering how much he threw away.

LINERS BRING SURVIVORS OF VOLTURNO

Women and Children Are Separated From Families in Disaster.

Rescue Vessels Due to Arrive at New York and Philadelphia.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The Red Star liner Kronland, and from Antwerp, one of the ten ships which helped in the rescue of passengers from the torpedoed steamer Volturno, was steaming today toward New York, delayed by an accident to its shaft. It was expected that it would reach its dock by 11 o'clock and set ashore Captain Ingh of the lost steamer and ninety other survivors.

Wireless advices report that among the Volturno's passengers on board are several women separated from their families, and three little children whose identity is unknown. The passenger list on the Kronland raised a fund of $114 for both rescue and rescue. A wireless from C. W. McClure, a passenger on the Kronland, reports a tragic accident which, viewed from the Kronland's deck, appeared to be the carrying out of a suicide compact between a young married couple. The man and woman were seen to join hands and jump into the ocean.

TELLS OF WIRELESS.

The wireless phase of the Volturno tragedy is told to a log kept by Senior Operator W. Seddon of the lost ship. It was sent to the Associated Press today by wireless from the Kronland. Seddon praises his junior, Pennington, in the following paragraph: "I wish to mention from start, junior stood by me, and deserves great credit for the way he rendered valuable assistance conveying messages to and from the captain, who was forward fighting the flames. When we could not do more inside the cabin, we did what little was possible on deck. It was very little, owing to the passengers refusing to jump for the boats which could not come right along, owing to the suction being great. "Two o. m. (Greenwich meridian time), Oct. 11, Junior jumped for Kronland's boat; captain's orders. Picked up unconscious. I stayed until last boat left with the captain, chief engineer and the remainder of the crew."

BRINGS 40 SURVIVORS.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—The North German Lloyd steamer Seduzia from Bremen for Philadelphia and Baltimore, one of the ships that went to the assistance of the Volturno and which is bringing nearly 40 of the rescued steamer passengers to this port, passed in the Delaware capes at 5:30 o'clock this morning. The vessel will dock at 11 o'clock.

ARRIVAL CHEERED.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The all tank steamer Narragansett, which arrived "with the milk in the morning" on the scene of the Volturno disaster and by greatly aided the rescue work, received a great reception on her arrival in the Thames at noon today. A band on board a tug met her down the river and played the "Conquering Hero" and a succession of national airs. Vessels' sirens screamed and salvos of cheers from the crowds on the river banks greeted the crew of the Narragansett as they reached the life on the Volturno to the inefficiency of the life boat men.

Compulsory Ballot Advocated by Navy Secretary Daniels

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 16.—In advocating compulsory voting, Secretary of the Navy, Joseph Daniels, in the Yale News today says:

BITTEN IN FIVE PLACES BY MAD DOG

3-Year-Old Lad Under Treatment for Painful Incisions.

Almond Miller, 3-year-old son of Mrs. D. L. Miller, a widow of 3135 West street, is today undergoing Pasteur treatment at the hygienic laboratory of the University of California, after having been deeply bitten in five places in the right leg by a rabies infected dog, Tuesday. The child is resting easily today and his recovery is expected. He was playing in front of a grocery store at Thirty-second and West streets when the dog appeared and without warning sank its teeth into the boy's leg five times, the worst incisions being an inch and a half deep. From the interior of the store Grocer Beldie witnessed the attack and prevented the dog from escaping or biting other persons who had gathered.

HAS NEW $150 SUIT; NO MONEY

Dr. Lyman, Promoter, Surprises Court With Fine Apparel

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—Although he appeared in a new suit, which he said cost $150, John Great Lyman, the promoter accused of having used the mails to defraud, in connection with Panama lands, told Judge Welborn in the Federal District Court that he had no money to employ counsel. Judge Welborn appointed Paul Schenck, and ordered the trial to proceed immediately.

TOO MUCH HAIR IS CAUSE FOR DIVORCE

That his wife had within two years' time incurred drygoods bills amounting to $462, while he was receiving a salary of $125 per month is the complaint of Claude De Faurchard, a solicitor for a grocery company, in his suit for divorce against Mamie E. Fairchild, which was filed today. The couple were married in 1903 and have no children. Louise S. Brown claims that Gilbert E. Brown, a car conductor, went two or three months at a time without having his hair cut. She is suing him for a divorce, alleging further that he treated her in a cruel manner on numerous occasions. Maud A. Wilber was granted an interlocutory decree from Charles Wilber on her cross-complaint charging desertion.

NEITHER HUSBAND NOR WIFE GIVEN DIVORCE

Holding that neither party to the action presented sufficient evidence, Superior Judge Harris has denied a divorce to either Mary Lancaster or her husband, Ralph E. Lancaster. The couple after their marital troubles in open court during a day's session. Lancaster is a real estate salesman.

LIFE IS SLOW BEHIND A COUNTER

This Is What Mrs. Hooper Is Alleged to Have Discovered.

Husband Then Files Answer That Tells of Woman Misconceived Love.

Life behind the counter of a grocery store in East Oakland was too monotonous for Harriet E. Hooper. She sought a variance so she accepted the attentions of Roland H. McDonald, salesman for a large packing concern, according to the answer and cross-complaint in a divorce which was filed today by Edward W. Hooper. In the community at East Twenty-eighth street and Thirteenth avenue there is talk of the domestic troubles that have arisen in the family of the leading groceryman.

Charges that his wife preferred an affluence are made by the husband.

"I don't love you any more, my heart is not yours," he says she told him one night.

Another time when he returned home earlier than usual, Hooper says that as he entered the front door he heard the kitchen door close quietly and that his wife refused to explain the circumstances.

While rummaging through a kitchen table drawer a short time ago, Hooper came across a note hidden in a napkin. The note is charged to have read:

"Oakland, Cal., Aug. 30. "My Darling Love: Saturday night, dearie, and somebody did not go out so I may have to curtail this at any moment, also for the same reason I am in a bad humor. It seems to be my second nature to be cross lately. And you are the only one I can take my spite out on, so the next time I see you—look out."

"So if you care to postpone your next call for a week, you may, but you will only have to suffer that much more in proportion, so what's the use. O, love, just to put my head on you and rest now, not that I am particularly tired, but it is lovely to rest that way even if I am not tired at all. What do you think of me, honey? don't you think I am the biggest baby you ever saw? Now don't tell me a story, just tell the truth for once. I wonder what my sweetheart is doing tonight. I have somebody pulling the leg from beneath my feet. I mean the coming soon, so I will have to say good-night, darling, and wish I could have a kiss with you. You old love, I wish I didn't have to think of you so much. Goodnight, Monday."

After the letter was found Hooper wrote that his wife admitted it had been written to McDonald and that he caught her in the act of trying to telephone to him.

"Would you be going to warn him?" asked Mrs. Hooper.

"No, I would not if you loved him," replied the wife.

The Hoopers reside at 2731 Thirteenth avenue and have a minor daughter.

MAY YET WIN THRONE

Prince Ernest August Favored in Chancellor's Decision on Protest.

BERLIN, Oct. 16.—The German crown prince recently sent a letter of protest to Imperial Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, against permission being given to Prince Ernest August of Cumberland, the husband of a crown prince's only sister, to occupy the throne of the Duchy of Brunswick, without his express renunciation of his pretensions to the throne of Hanover.

This protest has proved unsuccessful, for the Imperial chancellor today sent a long reply to the crown prince in which he justified the position taken by the Prussian government. At the same time the German government announced that it had a resolution for submission to the federal council of the German empire, revoking its decision of 1907 against any member of the House of Cumberland occupying the Dukedom of Brunswick.

CHILD FLAGS TRAIN TO HELP PARENTS

Five - Year - Old Girl Is Heroine of Auto Wreck

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 16.—Helpless to aid her parents, who lay plained beneath their overturned automobile, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Tucker of East Bakersfield, yesterday flagged a Southern Pacific train near Tipton and had the train crew come to the assistance of her papa and mamma. Engineer J. L. Whyers, leaning from his cab window of Southern Pacific Valley Flyer No. 51 saw the little girl frantically waving her arms and brought the train to a stop.

Assisted by the train crew, he managed to lift the heavy car off the man and woman and rescued them from their perilous position. The accident happened about a mile and a half from Tipton, when the steering gear of the automobile broke while it was running at a speed of 10 miles an hour. The car became unmanageable and turned turtle, throwing the little girl clear. She kept her nerve and probably saved the lives of her parents.

Mrs. Tucker was only slightly injured and proceeded to Goshen Junction with the little girl. Tucker stayed with the wrecked car, attempting to repair it sufficiently to continue his journey.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 16.—A convict in the state reformatory at Jeffersonville has confessed that he murdered Florence Brown, the Dallas, Tex., stenographer, who was found in an office there with her throat cut on last July 28, according to D. C. Peyton, superintendent of the reformatory.

ARREST 49 STRIKERS ON PICKETING CHARGE

TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 15.—Forty-nine striking miners charged with picketing, were arrested at the McLaughlin mine of the Santa Fe coal company today and marched three miles to the county jail at Trinidad. Fifteen deputies armed with guns flanked the prisoners on either side and machine gun mounted on an automobile brought up the rear, but in spite of this several members of the crowd of 300 strikers that followed the party attempted to break through the lines and liberate the prisoners.

AVIATOR, ABANDONED

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Seekers for land and sea for Albert J. Jewell, the aviator who vanished in the sky last Monday, abandoned hope today of finding his body or his aeroplane. They were convinced that he had been carried out to sea by the wind, had fallen into the water and was drowned.

DENTIST IS GOING TO TACKLE OAKS

Tree Surgeon Will Also Work; Decay to Be Attacked

Trees, like hens, have no teeth, but trees, not having their lack of dental facilities advertised by a proverb, have never had the fact impressed on the world until "tree dentists" were invented. Tree dentists are among the busiest of individuals, even though their patients have no teeth. Several of them are now at work on the oaks of Lakeside Park.

The "tree dentist" is the name applied to the expert who, with cement stops cavities in old trees. Deep cavities in trunks, where wood decays, often plays havoc with patriarchs of the forest, and a process somewhat like filling teeth, consisting of scraping out infected parts and filling with cement is employed. A tree surgeon is also employed on the work.

Under the direction of C. C. Staunton, tree expert, a force of men have started work on several of the big trees of the park, which were in bad need of attention. Large cavities have been filled, and in some cases infected branches have been removed by the "surgeon."

Following the work at Lakeside Park, the experts will examine other oaks of the city, the officials deciding that the trees from which Oakland derives its name should be preserved at all cost. Cavities, in some cases, as large as eight feet in length, have been filled in the sentinels of the park. The work is under the general direction of the park commission. Many of the trees, it is said, had been used as backdrops for targets, and the bullets in the trunks, corroding, aided in the decay. Bullets, grubs, worms, and even "water dogs" or salamanders, were found in the deep cavities which were filled.

The same work was recently done on several estates in Burlingame, the experts finding many old trees nearly past recovery.

Exhumed Bones of 60 Chinese Sent Home

OROVILLE, Oct. 16.—Nine large pine boxes containing the exhumed bones of sixty Chinese from Scales, Sierra county, were shipped by express to China yesterday where they are to be re-interred. The remains had been buried for more than twenty years. CHINESE POLITICS CAUSE WALKOUT

Supporters of Dr. Sun Object to Imperialist at Hotel

Loyal disciples of Sun Yat Sen went on strike this morning at the Hotel Oakland, refusing to work until one Imperialist, who had sought to spread his propaganda, had been dismissed. Protests of Chief Clerk French, in charge of the hotel, were of no avail.

Employed in the ballroom, were of no avail. French declared that he couldn't mix in Chinese politics; that he didn't know Dr. Sun, and that, anyhow, it was none of his business. Twenty Chinese remained firm. The one Imperialist went.

L. DUKE'S AUTO ENGINE OF DEATH

One Man Killed and Two Others Injured When Run Down.

Charge of Manslaughter May Be Placed Against Autoist.

SEATTLE, Oct. 16.—Lawrence Duke, aged 25, nephew of James B. Duke, president of the American Tobacco Company, spent the night in the county jail after his racing automobile had struck and killed Henry G. Farr, a saloonkeeper, and seriously injured Alfred G. Hoglund, an expressman, and Thomas G. Simmons, a shipping clerk, on a county road south of Seattle. It is expected that a formal charge of manslaughter will be placed against Duke.

The tracks of his car show that Duke applied the brakes when about 100 feet from Farr and the others who were gathered in the road about Hoglund's automobile engaged in replacing a tire. George Orth, who was in the group in the road and who escaped injury, declares that Duke was driving at the rate of 30 miles an hour when he rounded a curve close to the place of the accident. Hoglund's skull is believed to be fractured and he was severely bruised about the body. Simmons' left arm is broken, several ribs fractured and it is thought he is internally injured. The attending physician says both are in a critical condition. The injured men are in a sanitarium near the place of the accident.

Young Duke has had trouble with the police here several times for alleged reckless driving.

LIGHT SENTENCE FOR FORMER ACTOR

Judge Donahue Reasons That James Franklin Can Be Reformed.

James Franklin, an actor by profession and confederate of Robert E. Graham in several crimes of burglary, was sentenced to serve one year in San Quentin when he appeared before Superior Judge Donahue today. Leniency was shown the defendant when his sister testified that he had been addicted to the use of drugs. Inspector Thomas Gallagher of the police department testified that Franklin had assisted him in the recovery of nearly $1000 worth of stolen property.

Franklin endeavored to hold back the tears that came to his eyes when sentence was imposed. "You are a young man and I believe that you have shown a disposition to make reparation for your burglaries," said the court. "It will impose a short sentence to let you understand that society, which you have wronged, does not feel harshly toward you and that you may be given another chance."

Robert Graham, his partner, escaped in a sensational manner from the county jail on September 1, accompanied by Robert Bradley, a murderer.

GIRL'S 'EXPOSE' PROVES A SWINDLE

Grocer Told He Was to Be the Victim of Black Hand by Schemer.

Notifies Police and the Young Woman Is Placed Under Arrest.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—A new "black hand" swindle scheme was disclosed today following the arrest of year-old girl, in an alleged confession revealed by the police. The girl was arrested at the instigation of J. Marcollosa, a grocer, who notified the police when he received a letter alleged to have been written by Mrs. Mase. The letter requested Marcollosa to meet the young woman at a place named by her for the purpose of discussing a matter very important to her. When Marcollosa met the young woman, she was accompanied by a detective from the police department.

Mrs. Mase, according to the police, told Marcollosa she had overheard her uncle disclose alleged plans to attack the grocer by means of the black hand and that she had come to warn him. At the close of the conversation she asked Marcollosa for $100, so that she might flee from the wrath of her uncle. The police say Mrs. Mase admitted having written similar letters to several well known business men.

WAS BOY KIDNAPED?

Parents Fear Missing Sixteen-Year-Old Lad Was Spirited Away.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Kidnappers are believed to be responsible for the disappearance of Emil Frank, a 16-year-old boy, who has been missing since Tuesday afternoon from his home, 304 Sunnyside avenue, and whose parents frantically appealed to the police today to make an effort to find him. The youngster is in the habit of playing in vacant lots near his home with his brother and with other children in the neighborhood. He was last seen at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and was observed to attempt to climb on a wagon. Whether he did so and was carried off and picked up by someone admiring him, or whether he was deliberately stolen is a question which the detective department is trying to solve. The boy is one of a family of six children and the son of a baker well known in the Sunnyside district.

Oregon Hen Breaks Own Record for Eggs

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 16.—The Oregon Agricultural College hen that broke the world's egg-laying record a week ago by laying 283 eggs was made by a hen at the On-ly 281 eggs to her credit.
The Oregon hen, during the time she was making her record, was fed and housed in a way that would be practicable in commercial poultry-raising.

The previous high record of 282 eggs, finished her full year today at the Oregon Agricultural College in 1911. The average egg yield per hen in the United States is 70.

BARNEY OLDFIELD TRIES OUT COURSE

Cadillac Pilots Also Sizing Up Route of Big Race to Phoenix.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

Six checking stations for the Los Angeles-San Diego-Phoenix road race have been decided upon. Chairman Leon T. Shettler announced yesterday that all cars must stop and officially check at San Diego, Brawley, Black Butte, Yuma, Castle Dome and Middle Wells. It is possible that other checking stations will be added after conference with the drivers.

The course has been alive with racing cars the last week. Chas. Soules and Harry Ham, who will drive the Cadillac, have just returned from a trip to Phoenix. Barney Oldfield went to Phoenix in his Simplex recently and after a stop of two hours started on the return trip. At least a dozen cars will be on the course this week and Chairman Shettler expects to receive on an average of two entries a day during the next five days.

As in previous years, the course over which the cars will be piloted provides numerous tests of the way of rough stretches of roads which will have to be negotiated at high speed, winding mountainous trails and steep grades. And later, the drivers will be forced to overcome the barrier of shifting sands, which accounts for the naming of the Interstate race the Desert Classic.

Word comes from Phoenix and San Diego that racing cars are being fitted out almost every day, and several of the machines have been seen out on the roads, piloted by drivers who are studying the road conditions.

A great deal of assistance has been given by the people of San Diego in furthering of the plans for the big event, and with Phoenix, San Diego and Los Angeles working together everything will be in readiness for the starting of the best and most interesting desert race ever contemplated.

A parcel of the entry list afforded one an opportunity to ascertain reasons why every car has a chance to win first honors. There are entered cars ranging in price from $600 to $6000. Everyone knows that speed and speed alone will not insure a car first place, for only a few places are forced roads where high speed is found possible.

From Los Angeles the cars will be piloted over boulevards for about twenty-five miles, after which four country roads will be encountered. The road to San Diego is good and bad in places, but racing drivers who have been over the route predict that an average rate of speed in excess of fifty miles an hour will be registered during the progress of the race between the start and the checking point at San Diego.

Between San Diego and the border of the desert, a range of mountains will have to be traversed, and many difficult turns will have to be made, which will materially cut down the speed of the cars.

The dreaded Mammoth Wash, a stretch of shifting sand almost a mile in length, is bound to prove a stumbling block for a number of ambitious pilots, as a car will sink clear to the axle, if the wheels are shoved over out of the beaten track.

In one place there is a stretch of road where water is long over the desert and where water is not obtainable, and this section could easily be called "Death Valley the Second," as a large number of desert travelers have lost their lives on account of the scarcity of water.

Stopping for an over-night rest at Yuma, the drivers will send their cars on over the Colorado the next morning, and the finish of the 1913 Los Angeles-Phoenix race will be made some time during the afternoon.

STRENUOUS TRAVELING.
C. H. McCausland, New York representative of the Kissel-Kar, has received word from W. H. Stafford of the Standard Ink Company, stating that the Standard Ink Company has been ordered to furnish more than 3000 miles of European roads and up to date no trouble has been encountered.

"Since my last to you," Stafford writes, "the car has been through a grueling test and came out with flying colors. On top of the Standard, where the car is now, we drained the water out of the radiator and it was well we did so, for next morning everything was frozen and there was two inches of snow on the ground. Have been all through the Deloitte, Venice and across to Aix-les-Bains, France, before coming to Switzerland."

MONEY TO LOAN

CHATEL

A. A. WE ASK YOU WHY?

Why are we the largest and best equipped loan company in Alameda county? Also why is it that our old customers come to us when they are in need of money?

There is a reason

Why we are commendably leading money at the lowest rates on furniture, pianos, etc., at a more reasonable rate of interest.

GET $25 AND PAY IT IN 25 WEEKLY PAYMENTS OF $1.05.

GET $50 AND PAY IT IN 50 WEEKLY PAYMENTS OF $1.05.

GET $75 AND PAY IT IN 75 WEEKLY PAYMENTS OF $1.05.

These payments include the principal and cost of loan. In this way a loan can be paid much quicker and cost much less than a loan providing for interest only.

"CONFIDENTIAL LOANS TO LADIES ON THEIR PERSONAL NOTE."

If you will call at our private offices we will gladly explain further our method of loaning, or if you cannot call, phone or write for our confidential agent to call on you.
